Navigator® Equity Hedged Fund K. Sean Clark, CFA — Chief Investment Officer October 31, 2022

For the fiscal year ending October 31st, 2022 the Navigator Equity Hedged Fund (the "Fund") institutional shares declined 18.39%, compared to the MSCI World Index loss of 18.48% and the HFRX Equity Hedged Index loss of 3.35%.

- The Fund overweighted U.S versus International throughout the fiscal year, which was a net positive contributor to performance as geopolitical issues continue weighing more heavily on Europe than domestically.
- The strength of the U.S. dollar relative to the euro was a contributing factor to the Fund's overweight U.S. equity allocation.
- The Fund has recently begun to increase its international exposure as valuations overseas look compelling.
- The Federal Reserve has hiked interest rates by 375 basis points already this year and is expected to hike again by 50 basis points in December. A lot of financial tightening has already occurred with the Fed rate hikes, higher mortgage rates, declining stocks, and an appreciating U.S. Dollar.

The economy has remained resilient in the face of inflation pressure, the most aggressive Fed rate hike cycle in decades, growing concerns from analysts calling for a recession. We feel confident that the Federal Reserve is in the late innings of their rate hike cycle. Recent data suggests we are past peak inflation with lower commodity prices, good inflation moderating, and a cooling labor market.

As far as the Fed and rate hikes go, which has been a major driver of market losses and volatility this year, the market is now pricing in another 50 bps hike in December, another 50 bps hike in the first half of 2023. A question we are seeking to answer is "Is the Fed fighting yesterday's inflation battle?" Inflation has peaked and inflation expectations have remained well anchored. The Fed was too optimistic regarding inflation last year, and now they may be too pessimistic. Our main concern with the economy is that the Fed is hiking rates aggressively into falling inflation and a slowing economy. In our opinion the window for the Fed to engineer a soft landing is closing rapidly.

Navigator® Tactical Fixed Income Fund K. Sean Clark, CFA — Chief Investment Officer October 31, 2022

For the fiscal year ended October 31st, 2022 the Navigator Tactical Fixed Income Fund Class I shares (the "Fund") declined 9.55%, compared to the Bloomberg Barclays US Corporate High Yield Index loss of 11.76% and the Bloomberg Barclays US Aggregate Bond Index loss of 15.68%. The primary driver of performance in the Fund has always been the Fund's sector exposure and the modeling processes that drives the allocation between High Yield Bonds, US Treasuries, and cash equivalents.

- Credit and rates have been positively correlated this year, in contrast to normal times when they are inversely correlated. Risk-on and risk-off assets both declined as inflation spiked with CPI hitting a 40-year high of 9.1% y/y.
- The Federal Reserve has hiked interest rates by 375 basis points already this year and is expected to hike again by 50 basis points in December. A lot of financial tightening has already occurred with the Fed rate hikes, higher mortgage rates, declining stocks, and an appreciating U.S. Dollar.
- Elevated credit and rates volatility resulted in a larger number of allocation shifts during the fiscal year ending October 31st, 2022. The strategy owned each of the three fixed income sectors at various points during the year, as the credit markets remained very volatile. This sharply contrasted with the prior fiscal year period, in which the Fund remained invested with a risk-on bias throughout the entire period and remained fully invested in high yield bonds.

The economy has remained resilient in the face of inflation pressure, the most aggressive Fed rate hike cycle in decades, growing concerns from analysts calling for a recession. We feel confident that the Federal Reserve is in the late innings of their rate hike cycle. Recent data suggests we are past peak inflation with lower commodity prices, good inflation moderating, and a cooling labor market.

Navigator Ultra Short Bond Fund

Robert S. Bennett, Jr. – Senior Portfolio Manager

October 31, 2022

For the fiscal period ending October 31st, 2022, the Navigator Ultra Short Bond Fund ("the Fund") Class I shares returned 0.23%, compared to the Bloomberg Barclays U.S. Treasury Bellwethers 1 Year Index return of -1.01%. The duration of the Fund continues to be shorter than the benchmark, which led to the Fund's outperformance versus the benchmark. The Fund was invested in a mix of floating and fixed rate debt during the reporting period. The floating rate market continues digest the lower amount of Libor based debt and the adoption of SOFR based debt and these dynamics have led to opportunities in the overall short-term debt markets.

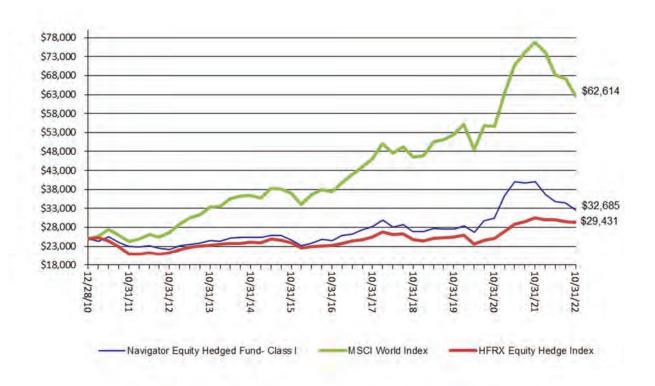

It was a busy year to say the least for the Federal Reserve. During the reporting period, the Fed increased the target range 300 basis points. We started the fiscal year with the Fed setting the target range of 0 to 25 basis points and by fiscal year-end the Fed had moved the target range to 300 to 325 basis points. The Fed conducted eight meetings during the fiscal period and five of which saw target range rate increases.

The market is now pricing in a terminal rate of around 500 basis points, which would imply the Fed will continue to raise the target range for the remainder of 2022 and into the first half of 2023. We expect to keep the Fund's duration shorter than the benchmark and invest opportunistically amid the changing landscape.

Class C and Class I shares are offered at NAV. Each class represents an interest in the same assets of the Funds and classes are identical except for differences in their sales charge structures and ongoing service and distribution charges. The Funds' income, expenses (other than class specific distribution fees) and realized and unrealized gains and losses are allocated proportionately each day based upon the relative net assets of each class. The primary investment objective of the Equity Fund, which commenced operations on December 28, 2010, is long-term capital appreciation. The primary investment objective of the Tactical Fund, which commenced operations on March 27, 2014, is to seek total return with a secondary goal of current income. The primary investment objective of the Bond Fund, which commenced operations on August 31, 2021, is to seek total return with a secondary goal of current income. The primary investment objective of the Allocation Fund, which commenced operations on June 11, 2021, is to seek long-term capital appreciation. The primary investment objective of the Ultra Fund, which commenced operations on March 21, 2019, is current income consistent with the preservation of capital.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The following is a summary of significant accounting policies followed by the Funds in the preparation of their financial statements. These policies are in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP"). The preparation of financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of income and expenses for the period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. The Funds are investment companies and accordingly follow the investment company accounting and reporting guidance of the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") Accounting Standards Codification Topic 946 "Financial Services Investment Companies" including FASB Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") 2013-08.

Securities Valuation – Securities listed on an exchange are valued at the last reported sale price at the close of the regular trading session of the primary exchange on the business day the value is being determined, or in the case of securities listed on NASDAQ at the NASDAQ Official Closing Price ("NOCP"). In the absence of a sale, such securities shall be valued at the mean between the current bid and ask prices on the day of valuation. Futures and future options are valued at the final settled price or, in the absence of a settled price, at the last sale price on the day of valuation. Options contracts listed on a securities exchange or board of trade for which market quotations are readily available shall be valued at the last quoted sales price or, in the absence of a sale, at the mean between the current bid and ask prices on the day of valuation. Option contracts not listed on a securities exchange or board of trade for which over-the-counter market quotations are readily available shall be valued at the mean between the current bid and ask prices on the day of valuation. Index options shall be valued at the mean between the current bid and ask prices on the day of valuation. Debt securities (other than short-term obligations) are valued each day by an independent pricing service approved by the Trust's Board of Trustees (the "Board") based on methods that include consideration of: yields or prices of securities of comparable quality, coupon, maturity and type, indications as to values from dealers, and general market conditions or market quotations from a major market maker in the securities. Investments valued in currencies other than the U.S. dollar are converted to U.S. dollars using exchange rates obtained from pricing services. The independent pricing service does not distinguish between smaller-sized bond positions known as "odd lots" and larger institutional-sized bond positions known as "round lots". The Funds may fair value a particular bond if the advisor does not believe that the round lot value provided by the independent pricing service reflects fair value of the Funds' holding. Short-term debt obligations, having 60 days or less remaining until maturity, at time of purchase, may be valued at amortized cost. Investments in open-end investment companies are valued at NAV. Swaps are valued through an independent pricing service or at fair value based upon the daily price reporting based on the underlying index or asset.

The Funds may hold securities, such as private investments, interests in commodity pools, other non-traded securities or temporarily illiquid securities, for which market quotations are not readily available or are determined to be unreliable. These securities are valued using the "fair value" procedures approved by the Board. The Board has designated the adviser as its valuation designee (the "Valuation Designee") to execute these procedures. The Board may also enlist third party consultants such a valuation specialist at a public accounting firm, valuation consultant or financial officer of a security issuer on an as-needed basis to assist the Valuation Designee in determining a security-specific fair value. The Board is responsible for reviewing and approving fair value methodologies utilized by the Valuation Designee, approval of which shall be based upon whether the Valuation Designee followed the valuation procedures established by the Board.

Fair Valuation Process - The applicable investments are valued by the Valuation Designee pursuant to valuation procedures established by the Board. For example, fair value determinations are required for the following securities: (i) securities for which market quotations are insufficient or not readily available on a particular business day (including securities for which there is a short and temporary lapse in the provision of a price by the regular pricing source); (ii) securities for which, in the judgment of the Valuation Designee, the prices or values available do not represent the fair value of the instrument; factors which may cause the Valuation Designee to make such a judgment include, but are not limited to, the following: only a bid price or an asked price is available; the spread between bid and asked prices is substantial; the frequency of sales; the thinness of the market; the size of reported trades; and actions of the securities markets, such as the suspension or limitation of trading; (iii) securities determined to be illiquid; and (iv) securities with respect to which an event that affects the value thereof has occurred (a "significant event") since the closing prices were established on the principal exchange on which they are traded, but prior to a Fund's calculation of its net asset value. Specifically, interests in commodity pools or managed futures pools are valued on a daily basis by reference to the closing market prices of each futures contract or other asset held by a pool, as adjusted for pool expenses. Restricted or illiquid securities, such as private investments or non-traded securities are valued based upon the current bid for the security from two or more independent dealers or other parties reasonably familiar with the facts and circumstances of the security (who should take into consideration all relevant factors as may be appropriate under the circumstances). If a current bid from such independent dealers or other independent parties is unavailable, the Valuation Designee shall determine the fair value of such security using the following factors: (i) the type of security; (ii) the cost at date of purchase; (iii) the size and nature of the Fund's holdings; (iv) the discount from market value of unrestricted securities of the same class at the time of purchase and subsequent thereto; (v) information as to any transactions or offers with respect to the security; (vi) the nature and duration of restrictions on disposition of the security and the existence of any registration rights; (vii) how the yield of the security compares to similar securities of companies of similar or equal creditworthiness; (viii) the level of recent trades of similar or comparable securities; (ix) the liquidity characteristics of the security; (x) current market conditions; and (xi) the market value of any securities into which the security is convertible or exchangeable.

The Funds utilize various methods to measure the fair value of all of their investments on a recurring basis. GAAP establishes a hierarchy that prioritizes inputs to valuation methods. The three levels of input are:

Level 1 – Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities that the Funds have the ability to access.

Level 2 – Observable inputs other than quoted prices included in Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly. These inputs may include quoted prices for the identical instrument in an inactive market, prices for similar instruments, interest rates, prepayment speeds, credit risk, yield curves, default rates and similar data. Level 3 – Unobservable inputs for the asset or liability, to the extent relevant observable inputs are not available, representing the Funds' own assumptions about the assumptions a market participant would use in valuing the asset or liability, and would be based on the best information available.

The availability of observable inputs can vary from security to security and is affected by a wide variety of factors, including, for example, the type of security, whether the security is new and not yet established in the marketplace, the liquidity of markets, and other characteristics particular to the security. To the extent that valuation is based on models or inputs that are less observable or unobservable in the market, the determination of fair value requires more judgment. Accordingly, the degree of judgment exercised in determining fair value is greatest for instruments categorized in Level 3.

The inputs used to measure fair value may fall into different levels of the fair value hierarchy. In such cases, for disclosure purposes, the level in the fair value hierarchy within which the fair value measurement falls in its entirety, is determined based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement in its entirety.

The inputs or methodology used for valuing securities are not necessarily an indication of the risk associated with investing in those securities. The following tables summarize the inputs used as of October 31, 2022 for the Funds' assets and liabilities measured at fair value:

The Funds did not hold any Level 3 securities during the year.

Valuation of Funds - The Funds may invest in portfolios of open-end or closed-end investment companies (the "underlying funds"). Underlying funds that are open-end investment companies are valued at their respective NAVs as reported by such investment companies. The underlying funds value securities in their portfolios for which market quotations are readily available at their market values (generally the last reported sale price) and all other securities and assets at their fair value by the methods established by the boards of the underlying funds. The shares of many closed-end investment companies, after their initial public offering, frequently trade at a price per share, which is different than the NAV per share. The difference represents a market premium or market discount of such shares. There can be no assurances that the market discount or market premium on shares of any closed-end investment company purchased by the Funds will not change.

Security Transactions and Investment Income — Investment security transactions are accounted for on a trade date basis. Cost is determined and gains and losses are based upon the highest cost method for both financial statement and federal income tax purposes. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date and interest income is recorded on an accrual basis. Purchase discounts and premiums on securities are accreted and amortized over the life of the respective securities.

Exchange Traded Funds — The Funds may invest in exchange traded funds ("ETFs"). ETFs are a type of fund bought and sold on a securities exchange. An ETF trades like common stock and represents a fixed portfolio of securities. The risks of owning an ETF generally reflect the risks of owning the underlying securities they are designed to track, although the potential lack of liquidity of an ETF could result in it being more volatile. Additionally, ETFs have fees and expenses that reduce their value.

Short Sales — A "short sale" is a transaction in which a Fund sells a security it does not own but has borrowed in anticipation that the market price of that security will decline. The Fund is obligated to replace the security borrowed by purchasing it on the open market at a later date. If the price of the security sold short increases between the time of the short sale and the time the Fund replaces the borrowed security, the Fund will incur a loss which could potentially be unlimited in size. Conversely, if the price declines, the Fund will realize a gain, limited to the price at which the Fund sold the security short.

Swap Agreements – The Funds are subject to equity price risk and/or interest rate risk in the normal course of pursuing their respective investment objectives. The Funds may hold fixed-rate bonds, the value of which may decrease if interest rates rise, and equities which are subject to equity price risk. The Funds may enter into various swap transactions for investment purposes or to manage interest rate, equity, foreign exchange (currency) or credit risk. These would be two-party contracts entered into primarily to exchange the returns (or differentials in rates of returns) earned or realized on particular pre-determined investments or instruments.

Credit Default Swaps - Credit default swaps ("CDS") are typically two-party (bilateral) financial contracts that transfer credit exposure between the two parties. One party to a CDS (referred to as the credit protection "buyer") receives credit protection or sheds credit risk, whereas the other party to a CDS (referred to as the credit protection "seller") is selling credit protection or taking on credit risk. The seller typically receives pre-determined periodic payments from the other party. These payments are in consideration for agreeing to make compensating specific payments to the buyer should a negative credit event occur, such as (1) bankruptcy or (2) failure to pay interest or principal on a reference debt instrument, with respect to a specified issuer or one of the reference issuers in a CDS portfolio. In general, CDS may be used by the Funds to obtain credit risk exposure similar to that of a direct investment in high yield bonds. The amounts to be exchanged or "swapped" between parties are calculated with respect to the notional amount. Changes in the value of swap agreements are recognized as unrealized gains or losses in the Statements of Operations by "marking to market" on a daily basis to reflect the value of the swap agreement at the end of each trading day. Payments received or paid at the beginning of the agreement are reflected as such on the Statements of Assets and Liabilities and may be referred to as premiums paid for swap contacts. A liquidation payment received or made at the termination of the swap agreement is recorded as a realized gain or loss on the Statements of Operations. The maximum pay-outs for these contracts are limited to the notional amount of each swap. CDS may involve greater risks than if the Funds had invested in the referenced obligation directly and are subject to general market risk, liquidity risk, counterparty risk and credit risk.

ETF, Mutual Fund and Exchange Traded Note ("ETN") Risk - ETFs, mutual funds and ETNs are subject to investment advisory or management and other expenses, which will be indirectly paid by each Fund. Each is subject to specific risks, depending on investment strategy. Also, each may be subject to leverage risk, which will magnify losses. ETNs are subject to default risks.

Market Risk - Overall market risks may also affect the value of the Fund. The market values of securities or other investments owned by the Fund will go up or down, sometimes rapidly or unpredictably. Factors such as economic growth and market conditions, interest rate levels, exchange rates and political events affect the securities markets. Changes in market conditions and interest rates generally do not have the same impact on all types of securities and instruments. Unexpected local, regional or global events and their aftermath, such as war; acts of terrorism; financial, political or social disruptions; natural, environmental or man-made disasters; the spread of infectious illnesses or other public health issues; recessions and depressions; or other tragedies, catastrophes and events could have a significant impact on the Fund and its investments and could result in increased premiums or discounts to the Fund's net asset value, and may impair market liquidity, thereby increasing liquidity risk. Such events can cause investor fear and panic, which can adversely affect the economies of many companies, sectors, nations, regions and the market in general, in ways that cannot necessarily be foreseen. The Fund could lose money over short periods due to short-term market movements and over longer periods during more prolonged market downturns. During a general market downturn, multiple asset classes may be negatively affected. In times of severe market disruptions you could lose your entire investment.

An outbreak of infectious respiratory illness caused by a novel coronavirus known as COVID-19 was first detected in China in December 2019 and subsequently spread globally. This coronavirus has resulted in, among other things, travel restrictions, closed international borders, enhanced health screenings at ports of entry and elsewhere, disruption of and delays in healthcare service preparation and delivery, prolonged quarantines, significant disruptions to business operations, market closures, cancellations and restrictions, supply chain disruptions, lower consumer demand, and significant volatility and declines in global financial markets, as well as general concern and uncertainty. The impact of COVID-19 has adversely affected, and other infectious illness outbreaks that may arise in the future could adversely affect, the economies of many nations and the entire global economy, individual issuers and capital markets in ways that cannot necessarily be foreseen. In addition, the impact of infectious illnesses in emerging market countries may be greater due to generally less established healthcare systems. Public health crises caused by the COVID-19 outbreak may exacerbate other pre-existing political, social and economic risks in certain countries or globally. The duration of the COVID-19 outbreak and its effects cannot be determined with certainty.

Futures – The Tactical Fund and Allocation Fund are subject to interest rate risk in the normal course of pursuing their investment objectives. To help manage interest rate risk, the Tactical Fund and Allocation Fund may enter into futures contracts. Upon entering into a futures contract with a broker, the Tactical Fund and Allocation Fund are required to deposit in a segregated account a specified amount of cash or U.S. government securities which are classified as deposits with broker in the accompanying Statements of Assets and Liabilities. Futures contracts are valued daily and unrealized gains or losses are recorded in a "variation margin" account. Periodically, the Tactical Fund and Allocation Fund will receive from or pay to the broker a specified amount of cash based upon changes in the variation margin account. When a contract is closed, the Tactical Fund recognizes a realized gain or loss. Futures contracts have market risks, including the risk that the change in the value of the contract may not correlate with changes in the value of the underlying securities. With futures contracts, there is minimal counterparty credit risk to the Tactical Fund and Allocation Fund since futures are exchange traded and the exchange's clearinghouse, as counterparty to all exchange traded futures, guarantees the futures against default. Futures contracts outstanding at period end are listed after the Tactical Fund's and Allocation Fund's Schedules of Investments.

Option Transactions – The Funds are subject to equity price and interest rate risk in the normal course of pursuing their investment objective and may purchase or sell options to help hedge against risk. When a Fund writes put and call options, an amount equal to the premium received is included in the Statements of Assets and Liabilities as a liability. The amount of the liability is subsequently marked-to-market to reflect the current market value of the option. If an option expires on its stipulated expiration date or if the Funds enter into a closing purchase transaction, a gain or loss is realized. If a written call option is exercised, a gain or loss is realized for the sale of the underlying security and the proceeds from the sale are increased by the premium originally received. As writer of an option, the Funds have no control over whether the option will be exercised and, as a result, retain the market risk of an unfavorable change in the price of the security underlying the written option.

The Funds may purchase put and call options. Put options are purchased to hedge against a decline in the value of securities held in the Funds' portfolios or to gain inverse exposure to market index. If such a decline occurs, the put options will permit the Funds to sell the securities underlying such options at the exercise price, or to close out the options at a profit. Call options are purchased to allow the Funds to enter a futures contract or purchase an exchange-traded note at a specified price. The premium paid for a put or call option plus any transaction costs will reduce the benefit, if any, realized by a Fund upon exercise of the option, and, unless the price of the underlying security, index, or future rises or declines sufficiently, the option may expire worthless to the Fund. In addition, in the event that the price of the security, index, or future in connection with which an option was purchased moves in a direction favorable to a Fund, the benefits realized by the Fund as a result of such favorable movement will be reduced by the amount of the premium paid for the option and related transaction costs. Written and purchased options are non-income producing securities. With purchased options, there is minimal counterparty risk to the Funds since these options are exchange traded and the exchange's clearinghouse, as counterparty to all exchange traded options, guarantees against a possible default.

Repurchase Agreements – The Tactical Fund may purchase securities from financial institutions subject to the seller's agreement to repurchase and the Tactical Fund's agreement to resell the securities at par. The Advisor only enters into repurchase agreements with financial institutions that are primary dealers and deemed to be creditworthy by the Advisor in accordance with procedures adopted by the Board. Securities purchased subject to repurchase agreements are maintained with a custodian of the Fund and must have, at all times, an aggregate market value plus accrued interest greater than or equal to the repurchase price. If the market value of the underlying securities falls below 102% of the value of the repurchase price, the Fund will require the seller to deposit additional collateral by the next business day. In the event that the seller under the agreement defaults on its repurchase obligation or fails to deposit sufficient collateral, the Fund has the contractual right, subject to the requirements of applicable bankruptcy and insolvency laws, to sell the underlying securities and may claim any resulting loss from the seller.

The notional value of the derivative instruments outstanding as of October 31, 2022 as disclosed in the Schedule of Investments and the amounts realized and changes in unrealized gains and losses on derivative instruments during the year/period as disclosed below and within the Statements of Operations serve as indicators of the volume of derivative activity for the Funds.

Offsetting of Financial Assets and Derivative Assets and Liabilities –

International Swaps and Derivatives Association, Inc. Master Agreements ("ISDA Master Agreements") govern OTC financial derivative transactions entered into by the Tactical Fund and their counterparties. The ISDA Master Agreements maintain provisions for general obligations, representations, agreements, collateral and events of default or termination. Events of termination include conditions that may entitle counterparties to elect to terminate early and cause settlement of all outstanding transactions under the applicable ISDA Master Agreements. Any election to early terminate could be material to the financial statements. Additionally, the Tactical Fund and each derivative counterparty enter into a Credit Support Annex which becomes part of the ISDA Master Agreement. The Credit Support Annex governs the margin collateral arrangements between the Tactical Fund and the derivative counterparty.

Under an ISDA Master Agreement or similar agreement, the Funds typically may offset with the counterparty certain derivative financial instruments' payables and/or receivables with collateral held and/or posted and create one single net payment (close-out netting) in the event of default or termination. In the event of a default by a counterparty, the return of collateral with market value in excess of the Funds net liability, held by the defaulting party, may be delayed or denied.

The Funds' policy is to recognize a net asset or liability equal to the net appreciation (depreciation) of the derivative. The following tables show additional information regarding derivatives and the offsetting of assets and liabilities at October 31, 2022.

Expenses – Expenses of the Trust that are directly identifiable to a specific fund are charged to that fund. Expenses, which are not readily identifiable to a specific fund, are allocated in such a manner as deemed equitable, taking into consideration the nature and type of expense and the relative sizes of the funds in the Trust.

Federal Income Taxes – The Funds intend to continue to comply with the requirements of the Internal Revenue Code applicable to regulated investment companies and to distribute all of their taxable income to their shareholders. Therefore, no provision for Federal income tax is required. The Funds recognize the tax benefits of uncertain tax positions only where the position is "more likely than not" to be sustained assuming examination by tax authorities. Management has analyzed the Funds' tax positions and has concluded that no liability for unrecognized tax benefits should be recorded related to uncertain tax positions taken on returns filed for open tax years ended October 31, 2019 to October 31, 2021, or expected to be taken in the Funds' October 31, 2022 year-end tax returns. The Funds have identified their major tax jurisdictions as U.S. federal, Ohio, Nebraska (for fiscal years prior to fiscal year ended October 31, 2019) and foreign jurisdictions where the Funds make significant investments. The Funds are not aware of any tax positions for which it is reasonably possible that the total amounts of unrecognized tax benefits will change materially in the next twelve months.

Distributions to Shareholders — Dividends from investment income are declared and paid quarterly for the Funds and are recorded on the ex-dividend date. The Funds will declare and pay net realized capital gains, if any, annually. The character of income and gains to be distributed is determined in accordance with income tax regulations which may differ from GAAP. These "book/tax" differences are considered either temporary (i.e., deferred losses, capital loss carry forwards) or permanent in nature. To the extent these differences are permanent in nature, such amounts are reclassified within the composition of net assets based on their Federal tax-basis treatment; temporary differences do not require reclassification. These reclassifications have no effect on net assets, results from operations or NAV per share of the Funds.

Indemnification — The Trust indemnifies its officers and Trustees for certain liabilities that may arise from the performance of their duties to the Trust. Additionally, in the normal course of business, the Funds enter into contracts that contain a variety of representations and warranties and which provide general indemnities. The Funds' maximum exposure under these arrangements is unknown, as this would involve future claims that may be made against the Funds that have not yet occurred. However, based on experience, the Trust expects the risk of loss due to these warranties and indemnities to be remote.

3. INVESTMENT ADVISORY AGREEMENT AND TRANSACTIONS WITH RELATED PARTIES

6. DISTRIBUTIONS TO SHAREHOLDERS AND TAX COMPONENTS OF CAPITAL

The tax character of distributions paid during the years ended October 31, 2022 and October 31, 2021 was as follows:

For the year ended October 31, 2022:

Bond Fund	35,500	-	-		35,500
Allocation Fund	-	-	-		-
Ultra Fund	228,399	-	-		228,399

The difference between ordinary distributions paid from book and ordinary distributions paid from tax relates to allowable foreign tax credits of $8,817 for the fiscal year ended October 31, 2022 and $4,072 for the fiscal year ended October 31, 2021 for the Equity Fund, which has been passed through to the Fund's underlying shareholders and are deemed dividends for tax purposes.

As of October 31, 2022, the components of accumulated earnings/(deficit) on a tax basis were as follows:

	Undistributed Ordinary		 tributed g-Term		tober Loss and	C	apital Loss Carry		ther k/Tax	_	nrealized preciation	Δ	Total ccumulated

Ultra Fund		156,533	-		-		(125,434)		-		(371,915)		(340,816)

The difference between book basis and tax basis unrealized appreciation/(depreciation) and accumulated net realized gain/(loss) from investments is primarily attributable to the tax deferral of losses on wash sales, and mark-to-market on open futures and options contracts.

At October 31, 2022, the Funds had capital loss carry forwards for federal income tax purposes available to offset future capital gains as follows:

	 Short-Term	 Long-Term	Total	Cai	rry Forward Utilized
Equity Fund	$ 6,153,315	$ -	6,153,315	$	-
Tactical Fund	607,589,228	174,047,629	781,636,857		-

^{*} The Navigator Tactical Investment Grade Bond Fund experienced a shareholder change in ownership resulting in an annual limitation on the amount of pre-change capital loss carry forwards available to be recognized in each year. Due to IRC Section 382 limitations, utilization of these carry forwards is limited to a maximum of $1,543,207 per year ($959,748 in the initial year.)

7. SECURITIES LENDING

The Funds have entered into a securities lending arrangement (the "Agreement") with The Bank of New York Mellon (the "Lending Agent"). Under the terms of the Agreement, the Funds are authorized to loan securities to the Lending Agent. In exchange, the Funds receive cash and "non-cash" or "securities" collateral in the amount of at least 102% of the value of the securities loaned. The value of securities loaned is disclosed in a footnote on the Statements of Assets and Liabilities and on the Schedules of Investments. Securities lending income is disclosed in the Funds' Statements of Operations. Although risk is mitigated by the collateral, the Funds could experience a delay in recovering their securities and possible loss of income or value if the Lending Agent fails to return the securities on loan. The Funds' cash collateral received in securities lending transactions is invested in the Dreyfus Treasury Securities Cash Management, as presented below. The Lending Agent retains the right to offset amounts payable to the Funds under the Agreement against amounts payable by the Lending Agent. Accordingly, the Agreement does not permit the Funds to enforce a netting arrangement.

As of October 31, 2022, the Equity Fund loaned securities which was collateralized by cash and other securities. The value of the securities on loan and the value of the related collateral was as follows:

Fund	Value of Securities Loaned	Value of Collateral*

We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) ("PCAOB") and are required to be independent with respect to the Funds in accordance with the U.S. federal securities law and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

Accordingly, we express no such opinion.

Our audits included performing procedures to assess the risk of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Our procedures included confirmation of securities owned as of October 31, 2022 by correspondence with the custodian, counterparties, brokers, or by other appropriate auditing procedures where replies from brokers were not received. This example is intended to help you understand your ongoing costs (in dollars) of investing in the Funds and to compare these costs with the ongoing costs of investing in other mutual funds. Please note, the expenses shown in the tables are meant to highlight ongoing costs only and do not reflect any transactional costs.

This example is based on an investment of $1,000 invested for the period of time beginning May 1, 2022 and held through October 31, 2022.

Actual Expenses: The "Actual" columns in the table below provide information about actual account values and actual expenses. You may use the information below, together with the amount you invested, to estimate the expenses that you paid over the period. Simply divide your account value by $1,000 (for example, an $8,600 account value divided by $1,000 = 8.6), then multiply the result by the number in the table under the heading entitled "Expenses Paid During Period" to estimate the expenses you paid on your account during this period.

Hypothetical Examples for Comparison Purposes: The "Hypothetical" columns in the table below provide information about hypothetical account values and hypothetical expenses based on the Funds' actual expense ratio and an assumed rate of return of 5% per year before expenses, which is not the Funds' actual return. The hypothetical account values and expenses may not be used to estimate the actual ending account balances or expenses you paid for the period. You may use this information to compare this 5% hypothetical example with the 5% hypothetical examples that appear in the shareholder reports of other funds.

Please note that the expenses shown in the table are meant to highlight your ongoing costs only and do not reflect any transactional costs such as front-end sales charges (loads). Therefore, the table is useful in comparing ongoing costs only, and will not help you determine the relative total costs of owning different funds. In addition, if these transactional costs were included, your costs would have been higher.

^{*} Expenses are equal to the average account value over the period, multiplied by the Funds' annualized expense ratio, multiplied by the number of days in the period ended October 31, 2022 (184) divided by the number of days in the fiscal year (365).

LIQUIDITY RISK MANAGEMENT PROGRAM (Unaudited)

The Funds have adopted and implemented a written liquidity risk management program as required by Rule 22e-4 (the "Liquidity Rule") under the 1940 Act. The program is reasonably designed to assess and manage the Funds' liquidity risk, taking into consideration, among other factors, the Funds' investment strategy and the liquidity of its portfolio investments during normal and reasonably foreseeable stressed conditions; its short and long-term cash flow projections; and its cash holdings and access to other funding sources.

During the fiscal period ended October 31, 2022, the Trust's Liquidity Risk Management Program Committee (the "Committee") reviewed the Funds' investments and determined that the Funds held adequate levels of cash and highly liquid investments to meet shareholder redemption activities in accordance with applicable requirements. Accordingly, the Committee concluded that (i) the Funds' liquidity risk management program is reasonably designed to prevent violations of the Liquidity Rule and (ii) the Funds' liquidity risk management program has been effectively implemented.

Clark Capital Management Group, Inc. Adviser to Navigator Equity Hedged Fund ("Navigator Equity"), Navigator Tactical Fixed Income Fund ("Navigator Tactical") and Navigator Ultra Short Bond Fund ("Navigator Ultra"), Navigator Tactical Investment Grade Bond Fund ("Navigator Investment") and Navigator Tactical U.S. Allocation Fund ("Navigator Allocation") *

In connection with the regular meeting held on June 22-23, 2022 of the Board of Trustees (the "Trustees" or the "Board") of the Northern Lights Fund Trust (the "Trust"), including a majority of the Trustees who are not "interested persons," as that term is defined in the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, discussed the re-approval of an investment advisory agreement (the "Advisory Agreement") between Clark Capital Management Group, Inc. ("Adviser" or "Clark") and the Trust, with respect to the Navigator Equity, Navigator Tactical, Navigator Ultra, Navigator Investment and Navigator Allocation (each a "Fund" and collectively referred to as the "Navigator Funds). In considering the renewal of the Advisory Agreement, the Board received materials specifically relating to the Advisory Agreement.

The Trustees were assisted by independent legal counsel throughout the Advisory Agreement review process. The Trustees relied upon the advice of independent legal counsel and their own business judgment in determining the material factors to be considered in evaluating the Advisory Agreement and the weight to be given to each such factor. The conclusions reached by the Trustees were based on a comprehensive evaluation of all of the information provided and were not the result of any one factor. Moreover, each Trustee may have afforded different weight to the various factors in reaching his conclusions with respect to the Advisory Agreement.

Nature, Extent & Quality of Services.

The Board noted that Clark was founded in 1986, had approximately $29.2 billion in assets under management, and that Clark provided multiple investment strategies across several asset classes. The Board discussed the background of Clark's key personnel, noting their education and varied financial industry experience. The Board discussed Clark's broker-dealer selection process and noted the variety of factors used to select broker-dealers. The Board noted that Clark reported no material compliance or litigation issues since the last Advisory Agreement renewal. They considered that the Adviser monitored compliance with each Fund's investment limitations using Excel spreadsheets linked to Bloomberg API and an order management system. The Board noted Clark had cybersecurity policies and procedures in place and continued to invest in and upgrade its technology. The Board concluded that Clark had the resources to continue to provide high quality service to each Navigator Fund and its respective shareholders.

Performance.

Navigator Equity. The Board discussed the Fund's investment objective and strategy. The Board noted that the Fund underperformed its index over all periods presented. The Board considered the Adviser's disagreement with the index, noting that the Fund outperformed the Adviser selected index, which includes a hedging component, over the three-year, five-year and since inception periods. The Board observed that the Fund had a three-star Morningstar rating. The Board concluded that the Fund delivered solid returns and the Fund was being managed consistent with its prospectus and performance was consistent with that mandate.

Navigator Tactical. The Board discussed the Fund's objective and Morningstar category. They observed that the Fund outperformed its category and peer group medians over all time periods presented, and its benchmark over the one, three, and since inception periods. The Board noted that the Fund maintained a 5-star rating from Morningstar and increased its assets by over 6% over the last year. The Board concluded that Clark had done an excellent job implementing the Fund's strategy to the benefit of shareholders.

Navigator Ultra. The Board discussed the Fund's current objective and investment strategy. The Board noted that the Fund maintained a 4-star rating from Morningstar. The Board observed that the Fund outperformed its benchmark over all periods presented. The Board noted that although the Fund's performance was negative over the one-year period, it ranked in the top quartile with respect to the category and peer group. The Board concluded that Clark was managing the Fund in accordance with the strategy articulated in the Fund's prospectus and performance was consistent with that mandate.

Navigator Investment. The Board discussed the Fund's current objective and investment strategy. The Board noted that the Fund had not yet received a Morningstar rating due to its limited history of operations. The Board observed that the Fund outperformed its benchmark over the since inception period and underperformed its peer group and category median. The Board concluded that Clark was managing the Fund in accordance with the strategy articulated in the Fund's prospectus and performance was consistent with that mandate.

Navigator Allocation. The Board discussed the Fund's current objective and investment strategy. The Board noted that the Fund had not yet received a Morningstar rating due to its limited history of operations. The Board observed that the Fund underperformed its benchmark and outperformed its peer group and category median over the since inception period. The Board concluded that Clark was managing the Fund in accordance with the strategy articulated in the Fund's prospectus and performance was consistent with that mandate.

Fees and Expenses.

Navigator Equity. The Board reviewed the Fund's peer group along with the Fund's advisory fee of 0.75% and considered that it was lower than both the category and peer group medians and averages. The Board further noted that the Fund's advisory fee was lower than the advisory fee charged by the Adviser for managing a similar strategy. The Board noted that the Adviser experienced a loss in connection with its management of the Fund. They discussed the Fund's current expense limitation agreement and the Adviser's willingness to discuss breakpoints in the future as the Fund increases in assets. The Board agreed that the advisory fee was not unreasonable.

Navigator Tactical. The Board reviewed the Fund's maximum advisory fee of 0.85% (with breakpoints beginning at $4.5 billion) and noted that it was higher than both the category and peer group medians and averages but was within the range of the advisory fees charged by the funds in the peer group. The Board further noted the Fund's net expense ratio was higher than its peer group median and higher than its category median but was within the range of net expense ratios for the funds within the peer group as a whole. The Board considered the Adviser's assertion that the advisory fee was reasonable given the experience needed to manage the unique strategy of the Fund. The Board concluded that the advisory fee was not unreasonable.

Navigator Ultra. The Board discussed the Fund's advisory fee of 0.30% and noted that it was slightly higher than the peer group average, but within the range of the advisory fees charged by the funds in the peer group. The Board further noted the Fund's net expense ratio was higher than its peer and category averages and medians but within the range of net expense ratios for the funds within the peer group as a whole. The Board discussed the current expense limitation agreement and the Adviser's willingness to discuss breakpoints in the future. The Board agreed that the advisory fee was not unreasonable.

Navigator Investment. The Board discussed the Fund's advisory fee of 0.85% (with breakpoints beginning at $4.5 billion) and noted that it was slightly higher than the peer group median and average. The Board further noted the Fund's net expense ratio was lower than its peer group medina and average but higher than the category average and median. The Board discussed the current expense limitation agreement and the advisory fee breakpoint currently in place. The Board acknowledged the Adviser's assertion that the fees and expenses for the Fund were reasonable given the compliance, legal and operational resources required to manage the Fund. The Board agreed that the advisory fee was not unreasonable.

Navigator Allocation. The Board reviewed the Fund's peer group along with the Fund's advisory fee of 0.85% (with breakpoints beginning at $4.5 billion) and considered that it was higher than both the category and peer group medians and averages. The Board considered the Adviser's assertion that the fees and expenses for the Fund were reasonable given the compliance, legal and operational resources required to manage the Fund. The discussed the Fund's current expense limitation agreement and the advisory fee breakpoints in place. The Board agreed that the advisory fee was not unreasonable.

Economies of Scale.

The Board considered whether economies of scale had been reached with respect to the fees paid to Clark on behalf of the Navigator Funds. The Board noted that Clark had previously agreed to breakpoints in its advisory fee with respect to Navigator Tactical, Navigator Investment, and Navigator Allocation. After a further discussion, the Board concluded that current breakpoints remained appropriate and in the best interests of shareholders and the absence of breakpoints for the remaining Navigator Funds was reasonable at current asset levels and would be considered as each Fund's assets increased.

Profitability.

The Board reviewed the profitability analysis provided by Clark with respect to each Navigator Fund. The Board noted that Clark realized a loss for each Fund with the exception of Navigator Tactical and Navigator Allocation. The Board discussed Clark's profits from its relationship with Navigator Tactical and Navigator Allocation and concluded that such profits were not excessive. In regard to each of the remaining Navigator Funds, the Board concluded that excessive profitability was not an issue at this time.

Conclusion.

Having requested and received such information from Clark as the Board believed to be reasonably necessary to evaluate the terms of the Advisory Agreement and as assisted by the advice of counsel, the Board concluded that renewal of the Advisory Agreement with Clark was in the best interests of the shareholders of each Navigator Fund.

* Due to the timing of the contract renewal schedule, these deliberations may or may not relate to the current performance results of the Navigator Funds.
